

THE COLORADO SPRINGS SCHOOL

CSS Model United Nations Club presents:

1st Annual Speaker's List

Objective:

Model United Nations is an international High School club in which students are encouraged to debate current events in a formal setting, emulating United Nations Headquarters. The Colorado Springs School invites you to our inaugural Speaker's List, an interactive community event with the purpose of increasing global awareness.

Guest Speaker:

Professor Peter Blasenheim is a professor of Latin American and African History at Colorado College, and is also the Co-Chair of the Spanish Department. As our Guest Speaker, Professor Blasenheim will be presenting: "Understanding and Misunderstanding Latin America."

You are invited:

Join us in this exciting exploration of Latin American politics on Friday, April 17, 2015 at 7:00 p.m. This event is free of charge. We will be serving desserts and coffee before the presentation; donations welcomed.

All donations received will go toward our CSS Model United Nations Club to assist us in offering future events in our Speaker's List Series.

Date and Location:
